

Golf Instructor Checklist

A NEW RULES INSTRUCTOR:

- Teaches Essential Golf Skills, not a model or method.
- Gives you a short game skill test and creates a program that inspires and motivates.
- Teaches you Core Mental Toughness skills.
- Has a supervised practice program available.
- Evaluates your fitness and prioritizes.
- Prioritizes during video analysis and does not confuse you with too much information.
- Checks your equipment to make sure you have, at the very least, the proper lie angle, shaft length and shaft flex.
- Has a program available to you that educates, inspires and motivates.
- Communicates ideas with simple, understandable words and phrases, not jargon and gobbledegook.

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS FOR A PROSPECTIVE NEW RULES INSTRUCTOR

- Hello, my name is _____. I'm looking for a New Rules instructor who will coach me with the same or similar principles I learned in "The New Rules of Golf Instruction" e-book. Are you willing to coach me using the New Rules standards?
- How long have you been teaching?
- Can you give me a list of referrals I can call to ask their impression of your instruction?
- Do you offer an introductory lesson so I can see if we match?
- I'm interested in a program for improvement.
Do you discount your hourly rate for a series of lessons?
- What and how do you charge?

IF ANSWERS ARE SATISFACTORY:

- When are you available?
